

One option:
In user account details in database, there is a list member variable that holds all media that user has clicked on as watched. Then, that media in that list is made visible to them and media not in that list will not be visible.